

DAYS OF REAL SPORT ON THE SHREWSBURY.
Above—two pretty misses from Red Bank, Janet Cooper and Helen Linton, all set in the cockpit of their speedy iceboat and ready for a spin down the river. Left—Another Red Bank ice yacht enthusiast, Gladys Shropshire, showing the men folk she's no land lubber by handling the tiller with the skill of a veteran as her craft skims along the glassy surface on two runners.

International-Keystone

Above—THE QUEEN OF HEARTS as portrayed in this distinctive pose by that well-known silver screen satellite, Jacqueline Logan. Her face, her lips, her hands—three "hearts" worth drawing to. Then if you could but catch the one she must wear upon her sleeve and the one that beats in her breast—you'd hold a hand on which to bet your roll.

Keystone

Right—A PORTRAIT PRIZE WINNER. Earnest L. Ipsen's canvas of "Mr. John Lane, of London," which was awarded the Thomas R. Proctor prize for the best portrait in the recent Winter Exhibition of The National Academy of Design.

FOLLOWING THROUGH. Atlanta's newest golf prodigy is four- and a-half-year-old Lack Bothamly, who, evidently inspired by the championship golf of his famous fellow-townfolk, Bobby Jones and Alexa Stirling, is out to claim the title of the game's greatest youngster.

P. & A.

A MODERN "LITTLE MARY," whose pets are the chattering birdies whose habitat is Central Park. Rain or shine one may see Miss Mary Aileen, winsome two-year-old daughter of Mark Leuschner, general manager of the Hippodrome starting off under the surveillance of her nurse, bravely carrying a big basket laden with bread and cake for her hungry feathered friends in the Park.

Underwood

THE DOGMOBILE. One of the new 1922 models you didn't see at Grand Central Palace last week is this one-mutt power machine, owned by Coy Watson Jr., the well known boy actor. It will do 25 miles or better to a pound of frankfurters. Note that said fuel is attached to the inside of the "radiator."

Underwood

Left—HIP! HIP! AND AWAY for a dash along Dufferin Terrace behind a string of spirited huskies driven by a gaily-garbed Canuck—is one of the invigorating winter sports enjoyed by the guests of the Chateau Frontenac on the white hills above the wide St. Lawrence in old Quebec.

C. P. B.

JEANNE STATUE IN WAS
Two photos veiling of woman statue in the that of Jeanne the gift of the des Femmes of New York week ago Friday ne-w Meridian a-mile north White House page—French sador Jusser living his Above—Seer War Weeks principal ad which he acc statue for the ment. Seate the flags at th the President Harding wh Mrs. Jussera the strings closed to view ure of the fan rior saint.

Right—A COPPER equipped with line, patrols the frozen of Vollandam.

Left—AN PICKFOR RIAGE. Lo ford, sister of mous Mary, Forrest—both geles movie who were m the coast last Mrs. Fairban her sister aw brother Jack best man.